The Michigan State Police Criminal Justice Information Center welcomes attendees to the second annual Criminal Justice Information Center (CJIC) Crime and Information Technology (IT) Security Conference September 1-2, 2015, located at the Radisson Hotel in Lansing, Michigan. This year, we are excited to welcome keynote speakers Jermaine Galloway, "Tall Cop says Stop!" as he speaks about the changing alcohol and drug trends. Attendees will learn how people are abusing it, where to find it, and most importantly how to stop it! Closing out the conference, we welcome Chief James. W. Tolbert with the Flint Police Department to speak about his public safety successes in Flint by using collaboration and merging resources, including proper information sharing on both a regional and statewide basis and using real-time crime intelligence. This conference also offers over 40 breakout sessions in various topics. There is a session for everyone!

The Radisson Hotel Lansing at the Capitol is the official hotel for the CJIC Crime and IT Security Conference. A block of rooms are available at a discounted rate by using group code CCSC915. Attendees requiring overnight accommodations should contact:
